

MLS INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE - SYLLABUS UPDATES FOR AUTUMN 2018

We are pleased to announce exciting new updates for our courses, which will take effect from 1 October 2018.

This will involve the introduction of some new courses, as well as improvements to the structure and/or content of some of our current courses.

A summary of the highlights is below and you can find more details below:

NEW FOR 2018/2019

Over 25's Business English

Over 25s only. Study business with other adult professionals.

Business Simulation Programme

Project-based learning. Typical age range up to 25. Minimum 1 week.

Management, Marketing and English Studies (Level 4)

Incorporates RQF Level 4 study units. Minimum 6 weeks.

CHANGES TO CURRENT SYLLABUS

International Business Communications (IBC)

Change of name to Business English and minimum age of 25 years.

Vocational Language Courses

Select from our new Business Simulation Programme or Management, Marketing and English Studies (Level 4) course for management and marketing studies. For students wishing to study law or finance, see the specialised English section below.

Specialised English: Legal, Financial, Medical, Hospitality and Tourism

Choose from a range of electives which can be added to our General English, Business English or Vocational Business Language courses.

University Pathway Courses

Choose from our Undergraduate Foundation Programme in Management and Marketing or our English for Academic Purposes course.

MLS Electives

Individualise your course by adding MLS Electives (2 lessons per week, small group size 1-4) in a variety of business-related subjects.

NEW

Business English for over 25s only

Study business with other adult professionals.

A professional language training programme for those aged 25 and above who are involved in the world of business. Improve your confidence in communicating both in business and in everyday situations. As well as improving your English language ability through the context of business language, you will also practise key skills that are needed in any business environment, such as negotiation and giving presentations, while enhancing your listening, speaking and pronunciation skills through study of communication and culture. This course can be joined weekly and can be studied for between 2 and 24 weeks.

NEW

Business Simulation Programme

Project-based learning. Typical age range up to 25. Minimum 1 week.

A practical, activity based course to develop your knowledge of relevant business issues and improve your communication skills in a multi-cultural setting. As well as general English language development, you will take part in discussions, debates and collaborative projects on business issues, developing your ability to communicate effectively in the professional world and growing your business knowledge and understanding. This course is typically for students aged up to 25, can be joined weekly and can be studied for between 1 and 24 weeks.

NEW

Management, Marketing and English Studies (Level 4)

Incorporates RQF Level 4 study units. Minimum 6 weeks. Replaces Vocational Language courses in Management and Marketing.

An English Language course which also enables students to study towards a qualification in Management and Marketing. If you prefer a more academic approach to your business studies, you can join our RQF Level 4 equivalent course enabling you to develop your knowledge and skills in management and marketing whilst also developing your English. This course is for students aged 17 and above, can be studied for 6, 12, 18 or 24 weeks, with an entry date every six weeks.

CHANGES TO CURRENT SYLLABUS FROM 1 OCTOBER 2018

From 1 October 2018 our International Business Communications (IBC) courses will change name to Business English courses. They will also have a minimum age requirement of 25 years.

Our Vocational Language Courses in Marketing, Advertising, PR & Business Communications and Management, Leadership, HR & Business Communications, will be replaced from 1 October 2018 with the new Management, Marketing and English Studies (Level 4) course.

Specialised English: Legal, Financial, Medical, Hospitality and Tourism, and other business-related subject areas will still be available year-round through a range of electives which can be added to our General English, Business English or Vocational Business Language courses.

University Pathway Courses: From 1 October 2018, we will offer an Undergraduate Foundation Programme in Management and Marketing (24 weeks). We will also be offering an Academic English course (12 or 24 weeks) for those who need to improve their academic English skills to meet the conditions of university entry. For both of these courses entry dates will be termly (ie every 12 weeks).

MLS Electives: From 1 October 2018, we will be offering students the opportunity to individualise their courses through the addition of Electives. Electives can be added (2 lessons per week, small group size 1-4) in a variety of subjects such as: General or Business English, Exam Preparation, Marketing, Management, Finance, Law, Hospitality/Tourism, Medical English and many other business-related areas. Electives can be added to most courses, with the exception of University Pathway courses.
